

Liz Weber

Biography

In the words of one client, "Liz Weber will help you see opportunities you never knew existed."

A sought-after consultant, speaker, and seminar presenter, Liz is known for her candor, insights, and her ability to make the complexities of leadership "easy." She creates clarity for her audiences during her results-oriented presentations and training sessions. Participants walk away from her sessions knowing how to implement the ideas she's shared not just once, but repeatedly to ensure continuous leadership growth and development.

Known as The Dragon Lady of Leadership Accountability™, Liz has been there, done it, and learned from it. As a result, whether she's speaking to corporate executives or government professionals, Liz's comments and insights on leadership and leadership accountability ring true.

As the CEO of Weber Business Services, LLC, a management consulting, training, and speaking firm headquartered near Harrisburg, PA, Liz and her team of consultants provide strategic and succession planning, executive coaching, and comprehensive leadership development training.

Liz has supervised business activities in 139 countries and has consulted with organizations in over 20 countries. She has designed and facilitated conferences from Bangkok to Bonn and Tokyo to Tunis. Liz has taught for the Johns Hopkins University's Graduate School of Continuing Studies, as well as the Georgetown University's Senior Executive Leadership Program.

Liz is also an author of several leadership publications:

- Leading from the Manager's Corner (2002)
- Don't Let 'Em Treat You Like A Girl - A Woman's Guide to Leadership Success - 1st -3rd Editions (2004, 2006, and Oct 2011)
- Nuts & Bolts on Business An anthology of success tips and features insights by leading management strategists Dr. Dennis Whaitley and Jim Cathcart (2007)
- Something Needs to Change Around Here -The Five Stages to Leveraging Your Leadership (September 2011)

Liz's Manager's Corner column appears monthly in several trade publications, association newsletters, and internet resource centers for executives.

Liz is a Certified Management Consultant (CMC), holds an MBA in International Business, and serves as a board member and the Strategic Planning Chair for The National Speakers Association.